EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. Claims 1-4, 6-13, 15-19, 22-28, and 30-45 are allowed.
2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.
3. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Jens Jenkins (Reg. 44,803) on 2-16-2006. Applicant's representative, Jens Jenkins, agreed to the following changes without prejudice:

In claim 1, line 11,

the phrase "set for" has been changed to

--set including communication bandwidth of said device for--.

In claim 10, line 11,

the phrase "set for" has been changed to

--set including communication bandwidth of said device for--.

In claim 16, line 8,

the phrase "set for" has been changed to

--set including communication bandwidth of said device for--.

In claim 25, line 15,

the phrase "set for" has been changed to

Allowable Subject Matter

5. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: upon close review of the claims, the prior art, and applicant's remarks it appears that the allowance of claims 1-4, 6-13, 15-19, 22-28, and 30-45 are appropriate.

The mobile device for composing an electronic message of U.S. Patent No. 6,760,696 by Goldberg is functionally equivalent to the claimed mobile device because the mobile device performs the claimed limitations of composing an electronic message and adding an audio content to the electronic message. Although Goldberg teaches a predetermined maximum set of an audio content for an electronic message (Fig. 4; col. 9, lines 39-60), Goldberg fails to teach a totoal amount of audio content added is limited to a predetermined maximum set including communication bandwidth of said device for a single electronic message.

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
